CHICAGO, FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1896.

PRICE, 10 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Old Barnes, who in the red and blue of the Drovers, raced brilliantly in 1893 and 1894 and at Kite, Tex., a few days ago, was almost a great racehorse in his day and threatened to divide 2 and 3-year-old form with Miss Woodford and George Kinney. Barnes was sixteen years old, by Billet—Mercedes, the dam of The Butterflies, and had for years been used as a sire by O. G. Parker. Bowen & Co. raced the colt in his early form and bred him.

The Posters are giving Dr. Rice a careful preparation for the Brooklyn Handicap. He has been taken up and is doing mild work on the route about St. Louis.

Byron McClelland announces that he will race altogether in the West this year. His yearlings are not much and the stable must win most of its 1896 spoils through Caesarina, Prince Left, Nimrod and Moylan. The former was nearly finished last season, improving with time. Nimrod is Hunter's brother. He asked $5000 a pair at times, $20000 a pair at others and his best form that of the spring.

Engene Leigh will sell thirty-one yearlings, the product of LaBelle, at Morris Park, March 28. A lot of them are by Bramble, several are out of such children as winners. Mr. Leigh is now the sole owner of the portable horse stall, having bought out his former partner, J. Morris. The appliance is an ingenious one. By the use of a few levers an ordinary car is changed into comfortable traveling quarters for a race horse. The economy of the plan is wonderful.

In addition to the poolrooms established at Euclid Park, a Cincinnati suburb, Chas. Kolinger has opened one at West Covington, Ky. The Louisville poolrooms are still open, too. The St. Asaph people are credited with an effort to open a race track at historic Harper's Ferry in West Virginia, where the law is favorable.

President Beauchamp, of the Middle States Racing Circuit, was in town yesterday endeavoring with Secretary Crevelling of the Indiana tracks about his racing plans for 1897.

Referring to the summer harness meeting and horse show at Washington Park, that high-class business man, Frank S. Gordon, says: "The North Western Breeders will endeavor to give the most attractive out-of-door show possibly in connection with their trotting, many of its exhibitions will be such that cannot be given as an in-door show. For instance, we shall have a lot of our yearlings for one-quarter mile, harness teams at a mile, carriage teams at a mile and a lot of special displays at short distances. The Police company will make some nice exhibits. They will do their best to give the public a high-class entertainment of the best order."
